

The Mount Rubbermore Challenge

This template was made for the Mount Rubbermore Challenge in the Fall 2027 issue of RubberStampMadness. You can, of course, work with your own version of Mount Rushmore, the mountain tribute to past presidents located in South Dakota.

Consider adding friends, famous people, cute animals, or maybe odd-ball monsters to the blank faces. Or come up with something totally different and unexpected.

Send artwork to RSM, PO Box 610, Corvallis, OR 97339-0610. Or send a jpeg to graphics@rsmadness.com. Send artwork on or before March 5.
